Pray Heed the Words of Their Royal Majesties

Unto the great and noble populace of the Outlands doth Bela and Claudia send heartfelt greetings.

We would like to thank all of those gracious Outlanders who supported the Kingdom and Ourselves at this past Gulf Wars. The Outlands Army was small in number but mighty in heart and valor on and off the field of battle. We would also like to thank those good gentles that were of great help to Us as We traveled the Kingdom as Prince and Princess. Our time as Prince and Princess was very special and We will cherish Our days as TRM's Hrorek and Caoilfhionn's Heirs. We can not thank Their Excellencies enough for all that They have done for the Kingdom and for Ourselves and We wish them many happy and prosperous days to come.

We would be remiss if We did not also thank Their Excellencies Carrick and Katherina, the Barony of Caer Galen, and all who helped make Our Coronation a day We will not soon forget. The feast was wonderful, the camaraderie and fellowship that was shared by all was a vivid reminder of why We love the Outlands.

The warm winds carry the sounds of the Outlandish drums with Us as Our caravans travel the Knowne World. We would encourage all who are able to, to join Us and Our caravan as We travel to Artemisia for Uprising and to Calontir for Lillies War. We look forward with much anticipation to spending time enjoying the hospitality and graciousness that Our neighbors are well known for. The joy of traveling to distant lands and making new friends is matched by Our love of visiting the many groups in the Outlands, for We are truly blessed to be the Crown of such a mighty and talented Kingdom.

In Service to the Outlands and all who reside within her borders,
We remain Your faithful Crown

Bela — King

Claudia — Queen

Kingdom Seneschal of the Outlands

With the grandeur and tradition of Coronation and Grand Outlandish past, we can look forward to many wonderful events this summer.

The Barony of al-Barran will welcome a new Baron and Baroness at Stag's Bloodbath on July 8th. The change of the Baronial Coronet is always a time of excitement for everyone. In addition, the Outlands' Twentieth Year Celebration will be held on July 27th-30th, and will give everyone an opportunity to experience the history and traditions that make the Outlands strong. If that's not enough, there will be many more events in this kingdom and neighboring kingdoms to keep us all busy throughout the summer.

As seneschal over the course of the last year and a half, I have learned so much, made so many wonderful friends and truly learned how much work goes into a "game". At this time, Their Royal Majesties request that letters of intent for the office of Outlands Kingdom Seneschal be received by Them and Master Aaron Swiftrunner, Society Seneschal, no later than June 30, 2006. If you are interested in this position, but have questions or would just like more information, please feel free to contact me by phone or email. The contact information for Their Royal Majesties, Master Aaron and myself can be found in the Outlandish Herald.

Every moment is the opportunity to serve!
Mistress Leah de Montgomerie of Lark Hall

Kingdom Earl Marshal

Greetings Outlands,

By the time you read this, more than a year will have passed since I stepped up as Earl Marshal. In that time, I have seen acts of Valor, Honor, Chivalry and Service too numerous to mention. There have been a few "bumps" along the way, but no large hills to climb.

As I said, it has been a year, when I accepted the position...I did say "only 2 years". So, to that end, I would like people to start thinking about whether or not they have the time to devote to a position such as this. It is work, don't get me wrong....but every newcomer who hits the field, every tournament, and every good clean fight is the reward that comes with the job. I would like to have a deputy who plans to hold it next in place before Estrella Treaty Negotiations this Fall so that they can see just what all happens there...with the goal of changing out early Summer 2007. If you are interested, please send a letter including all pertinent information to the earlmarshal@outlands.org account.

Other than that, we have many fighting events coming up this summer. Outlandish, Glory, Quest for Camelot (with Northshield), Baronial Uprising (with Artemesia), and a little thing called Outlands 20th Year are all ways to come show your mettle...

Sir Mavrikii

Kingdom Chronicler

The office of the Chronicler has been described to me by many a former officer as the best job you can have. If you have an interest in helping me build the team responsible for showcasing our Kingdom's best, please don't hesitate to call or email me.

Yours Assured,
Anne Bigod, Chronicler

White Stag Principal Herald

Greetings, fellow Outlanders!

Outlands Twenty Year Celebration approaches, and I hope to see a pennon from every point. While I had mentioned last month about parameters for the parade of flags being forthcoming, to my great delight, the Honorable Lady Marguerite Dinard is now in charge of that project, and no doubt everyone's banner is ready under her gentle guidance.

Heralds, if you have a tabard or surcote, please have it on hand for this event. If you don't, but were planning to make one, the kingdom's birthday is as good a reason to make one as any. Any branch herald may wear their branch armory, and any other herald may wear the gold trumpets on a green field.

LOAR RESULTS: The January 2006 LoAR has been received. Details are, or soon will be, available at http://www.sca.org/heraldry/loar/, and submitters will be notified by postal mail.

I remain yours in glad service and duty,
THL Sorcha MacLeod

Kingdom Hospitaller

If the emails that are coming into my box are an indicator, the Outlands may be experiencing some growth. This is extremely exciting. My mission in writing this article is to help these newcomers find a home as fast and conveniently as possible.

The reason I am receiving the emails is because many of the Hospitaller email addresses found on group websites are bouncing. I have a few suggestions to avoid the confusion some potential new people are experiencing trying to find a point of contact. First, if you are the friendly, welcome-wagon kind of person, please volunteer your services as a Hospitaller/Chatelaine. Second, Seneschals and webmasters please make sure that someone's active email address is tied into the Hospitaller's address offered on your websites. The Seneschal's address should be tied in until a Hospitaller can be found.

The websites are the most effective way for people to become acquainted with the local groups. I would like to thank the local and kingdom webmasters for their important work and diligence keeping the sites current. If your group currently does not have a web page, I strongly encourage you to create one.

In Service,
The Honorable Lord Bela Magyar, CSH

Kingdom Minister of the Lists

To the fighters of the Outlands, Good Day!

Again, I come to you with a round of thanks for all those who made Coronation possible. Baron Massimiliano and his staff deserve a round of thanks. It never ceases to amaze me how hard people work to make Kingdom events happen. Caer Galen was no different, and their hospitality was wonderful.

All the usual thanks follow, to the heralds, the waterbearers, and all those who worked in the lists. Without you all, my work would be impossible.

Thank you all again and again!

As Ever Yours,
Lady Mariah Abramsdottir

Outgoing Kingdom Scribe

Greetings Unto the Populace of the Glorious Outlands

The scribes who contributed their considerable talents during the Reign of Hrorek and Caoilfhionn are listed herein. My special thanks to Averil du Bois d'Avignon, Cailte Caitchairn, Derdriu O'Fionnghail of Clare, Jeanne Dyfrgi and Nadrah bint Lu'Lu' al-Qadisi who all created 5 or more scrolls for the Reign and Michael M'Quilline, Monika von Zell and Ymanya Murray who created 10 or more. In addition to working on scrolls for Kingdom, many of the scribes listed below also worked on Baronial assignments and scrolls for gifts to other Kingdoms. Immense thanks to all for sharing your talents with us...the Outlands is extremely fortunate to have so many dedicated, talented scribes!

Next month at Outlands 20th Year Celebration we would all love to see a display of scrolls encompassing our entire time as a Kingdom. However, as this is a camping event please don't bring these wonderful works to be subjected to the elements. I will have clear plastic sleeves to put copies or photos in for display. Pictures from our earliest days are certainly appreciated, but scroll pictures or copies from all our years will be displayed as we celebrate the history of scribal arts in the Outlands. There will also be a "Green and Gold" Scroll Competition. For more information on the display or competition, please contact: Mistress Bennet (bennetbev@aol.com) or Mistress Nadrah (nadrah@earthlink.net).

Having just stepped down as Outlands Kingdom Scribe, I must say what an extraordinary honor it has been to work with the scribes of the Outlands. I am proud to be associated with such an outstanding group of artisans. Please allow me to thank my deputies (official and unofficial) who helped make my tenure such an enjoyable time: Averil du Bois d'Avignon, Cailte Caitchairn, Nadrah bint Lu'Lu' al-Qadisi and Ymanya Murray. These wonderful ladies have done dozens of scrolls while also helping administratively in the Kingdom Scribes office, teaching, doing baronial or gift scrolls and just all around making themselves indispensable. I also extend my sincere thanks to the Baronial Scribes who do such a wonderful job for their baronies.

Join me now in welcoming Mistress Nadrah bint Lu'Lu' al-Qadisi as Kingdom Scribe. I know she will do an outstanding job!

I Remain Yours in Service to the Outlands and Her Crown,

Bennet Murray

Kingdom Minister of Arts & Sciences

Greetings Outlands,

The Barony of the Citadel of the Southern Pass will be hosting an Arts & Sciences Collegium on June 10th. This will be a great opportunity to attend classes, learn new skills and visit with friends.

At Outlands 20th year, sponsored by the Barony of Dragonsspine held on July 27th-30th, there will be two separate Arts & Science events running, the first is to be themed: Kingdom devices in any medium. Please note that pre-registration will be required and a site will be set up in the future for this purpose. Please keep an eye on the 20th Year web page for more details. Until then, please contact me if there are any questions. The second competition running will be scrolls in the Kingdom colors. Mistress Bennet Murray has published details on the competition and she will be the contact person for this competition. Please refer to the 20th Year web page for more information.

As with any competition, I will be in need of judges who will donate their time and expertise to this endeavor. If you are planning to attend Outlands 20th Year, please consider offering your time to judge.

As the new Kingdom Web page is completed, please look out for updates to the A & S page. There will be links with the list of categories for competition, updated list of warranted A & S Officers and as soon as it is finished, a revised A & S Handbook. Judging forms will be added once these have been updated.

Dans le service,

The Honorable Lady Marguerite Dinard

Kingdom Minister of Children

Unto the great populace of the Outlands does Lady Jayne Barber send greetings

I am currently creating new youth related resources with your help and referrals and also providing easy access to these resources and other valuable information. There is an amazing newsletter for youth titled Libellus (little book) and several back issues are available on-line at http://www.freewebtown.com/JamesandGwen/libellus.htm. The goal of Libellus is to present youth with period ways for having fun and becoming involved in the SCA. There are lots of great ideas for youth, parents and those who help put on youth activities in these newsletters and I really recommend that you check them out. For parents of teenagers, I recommend the article "Your Teenager and the SCA-Some Answers for Parents" available from the society website at http://www.sca.org/newcomers.html.

One of the ways we can start sharing our knowledge, ideas, youth activities, plans, support and resources is to use the discussion list that you can join at http://groups.yahoo.com/group/Outlands-MOC. I hope that everyone who works with youth in the Outlands or has an interest in youth activities will join this list. There are two other Outlands discussion groups for parents and teens to share ideas and you can join them at http://groups.yahoo.com/group/outlandsjuniors/ and http://groups.yahoo.com/group/OutlandsParents/.

I would like to know any questions that have arisen in your local group from your youth and their parents and your youth activities volunteers which you feel would benefit others. I would also love to have resources that you have found valuable, including articles, discussion lists, websites, handbooks, pamphlets, youth booklets, etc. so that we can share these with each other. If you are a Minister of Children for your local group or you work with youth activities, please contact me at krege@aps.edu, Barbara Krege, 12612 Morrow Avenue N.E., Albuquerque, N.M. 87112, 505-293-7453.

I will be coordinating youth activities for Outlands 20th Year Celebration, which will be hosted by the Barony of Dragonsspine at Cripple Creek, Colorado this July 27-30. We plan on three full days of fun activities and classes for the youth July 27-29. If you would like to teach a class, donate prizes, host a youth activity, help with youth classes and activities or have ideas to share, please contact me at krege@aps.edu as soon as possible. If you are planning youth activities at your events, please let me know so that I can help spread the word. I hope you will share this information with your friends and your local group.

In service,
Lady Jayne Barber

Greetings to one and all! We archers usually come in third for consideration of time and space. Not this time! This one is for us, the so-called "wimps" who have, throughout history, often been the deciding factor in a battle - not to mention putting food on the table. Come hone your skills at the many scenarios we have planned. Prove your ranking during an IKAC. Strengthen your endurance with a round of golf. Sharpen your eye with a dragon hunt. Show your worth with a castle shoot. Practice shooting vermin with a game of barchery. Take your chances with a game of cards. Test your precision with a tower shoot. Then prove your courage and skill with a boar shoot. There will also be food aplenty and games of chance in the evening hours. Come join the fun and camaraderie. The site is wet (for those of age).

Directions: Take your best route to Clovis, NM
Coming from the West on Hwy 60/84: go to the intersection of Prince St. and 60/84. Turn left (North) onto Prince St. and travel approximately 8 miles. Continue out of town to County Road 17. The SCA sign will be on the left just after the road so, start slowing down after the park sign. From the South into Clovis via Portales on Hwy 70: go to the intersection of 60/84 and Prince St (Hwy 70 turns into Prince St. through town). Continue north through town to CR17. From the East on Hwy 60/84(Farwell, TX): head west to the intersection of 60/84 and Prince St., turn right and head out of town to CR17.

Greetings to all and singular!
There comes a time each year that the Coronet of the strong and noble Barony of Dragonsspine requests that fighters from throughout the Kingdom come test their mettle in tournaments of skill and chivalry. These tests of skill will include all of the fighting arts such as heavy combat, rapier finesse and the art of the long strike with archery. And new to this year, two tournaments of fun and skill with prizes for our youngest combatants, boffer tourneys to showcase the Pride of the Outlands.
If you think that only the arts of combat will be on display, you are sorely mistaken! As we in this fine Barony have known for years, our country sides rival the beauty of any other's in the Knowne World! And to showcase this, we have been instructed to offer rides on the backs of our noble steeds across our lands. There will also be hay rides on Friday and Saturday evening to relax, catch up with old friends and enjoy the beautiful star-lit skies of Dragonsspine (horse and hay rides offered at a small additional fare).
So come and enjoy an event of camaraderie, amazing martial displays and much-needed relaxation. Come and enjoy the Dragonsspine Warlord and Champions event.

Chapter 2

""Blasphemy!"

The abbot turned on his heel and paced the length of the room for the hundredth time. He was not a man prone to anger, but this time the burgermeister had gone too far. It certainly was not unusual for the two of them to come to loggerheads, for the burgermeister too often put the laws of man before the laws of God. But the idea of this faire ... it was damnable.

The abbot's frown deepened. This was a tenuous time for the church, he knew. People were beginning to question the church, and challenge the Pope's eminence. Not the throngs of the normal people, who simply followed whatever current they were given, but those born of nobility. Oh, it was subtle – like any terrible change, starting quietly and in small steps – but the abbot had begun to sense it. Mankind, it seemed, had forgotten the lessons taught a millennia ago: that people were given to commit sin. And a man given too much power without the moral compass of holy guidance would certainly become corrupt: that corruption inevitably then trickled down to the masses.

This faire could only mean trouble. It would attract the worst traits of humankind. Idle minds and unrestrained hands became the Devil's providence. This many people gathering for the sole purpose of merrymaking was simply too big a temptation for the seeds of sin to be sown. This simply would not do. The abbot could not stop the faire, it had already gained too much momentum. The church would have to wrest control of this faire. To give it some higher purpose. It was his duty, after all, to maintain the morality of the people. People on a pilgrimage would be less inclined to condone heathenism. In fact, they would be more likely to condemn the sinners. He would make this a pilgrimage ... a cause for morality. He smiled. And a cause for him to be noticed.

Class ideas are welcome, please contact the autocrat.

We are planning an Artisan's Row. This will be where the artist of this Kingdom can set up a workshop for the weekend. Those interested can stop and participate and learn the crafts demonstrated. Willing artisans needed!

Make something to show your pride in your Kingdom! A parade through the town to the beginning of the Pas d' Armes tournament will show all your finery off. Make your camp site a show piece! Another contest will be the display of pageantry in camps - show off your household or personal colors!

Have you ever wanted to perform a play or farce? Get your group (or yourself) together and create a show for the Faire stage. If you have an Inn that you have run in the past and would like to set it up here please contact the autocrat. Are you a Merchant? Want to be part of this? The Board of Directors needs your help! We ask that you write or email the Board giving us your comments regarding any of the nominees on this list with whom you are familiar. While all commentary is more than welcome, we find it especially helpful to read your assessments of the nominee's abilities in areas such as working with diverse groups of people, understanding of varied aspects of the SCA, ability to plan and carry through projects to completion, ability to meet deadlines and keep up with correspondence, and past experiences in either SCA or modern world capacities that would be useful on a nonprofit corporation's Board of Directors. We also strongly encourage you to send us the name and contact information of anyone you feel would make a good candidate for the Board of Directors. All commentary is kept confidential, and new Directors never see the commentary made about them. Please address comments to the Ombudsman for Board Recruiting: Lis Schraer, 3651 Hartford St., St. Louis, MO 63116, or send them via email to recruiting@sca.org.
